

Danielle Hughes

Outside Director

Danielle Hughes, Outside Director on Miller/Howard Investments' Board of Directors, is also the Founder and Principal of Divine Capital. Danielle began her Wall Street career in 1991, and has extensive proven expertise in the areas of proprietary and agency equity trading and investment banking. From 1992 to 1998, Danielle served as vice president of trading at M.H. Meyerson & Co., a large wholesale market making firm, and was responsible for establishing the firm's IPO and secondary trading desk. Danielle founded Divine Capital in 2001 with the intention of aligning her firm's interests with her client's' interests, understanding the importance of transparency in the global marketplace along the value chain within the securities industry. In 2005, she established Divine Alternative Asset Management. Danielle graduated cum laude from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst.

Miller/Howard Investments Inc. is an independent, research-driven investment boutique with over three decades of experience managing portfolios for major institutions, mutual funds, and individuals. The firm is 100% employee-owned through an Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP).

The firm invests in high quality stocks with strong balance sheets, governance, and fundamentals, as well as the ability to pay and willingness to increase dividends. Our portfolios invest in infrastructure, essential services, and MLPs (Master Limited Partnerships), as well as diversified portfolios that invest across all sectors. We continue to integrate ESG analysis with financial analysis in our pursuit of companies that have strong commitments to high operational standards, the environment, social responsibility, and good corporate governance. We call this approach Sustainable Income Opportunities™—investment solutions to match our clients' goals and values.
